

A Blanket of Snow

Ireland; Known for its rainy and windy days. Sometimes sunny but it really doesn't usually snow here, only at-most once or twice a year. But this year, something happened. Something that Irish people could not believe with their own eyes, something amazing.

At night time on the second of March, 2015. A lad was watching the weather channel to see what was going to occur the next day. It was not a surprise to him what would happen, the forecast showed the usual rain showers with small patches of sunshine.

It was time to go to bed and get rested up for the next day. But, in the middle of the night, he got up to use the bathroom. Very tired, he went back to bed but stopped to look out the bathroom window. Snow! He could not believe his own eyes. Outside the snow was as white as clouds. He rushed down the stairs and opened the door. Snow was everywhere, it was like a blanket of snow.
